

An aerial photograph of a person floating on their back in a rectangular pool. The pool is surrounded by a dense wall of various green plants and trees, creating a lush, jungle-like atmosphere. The pool's bottom is covered in mosaic tiles. A person is floating in the center of the pool, their arms and legs spread out. The surrounding area is filled with potted plants, hanging vines, and large tropical leaves. The overall scene is serene and luxurious.

Luxury Travel

Where Danish Charm Meets Luxury

Content

- p. 3 Denmark & Its Regions
- p. 4 Danish Luxury
- p. 5 Copenhagen
- p. 15 Zealand
- p. 20 Bornholm
- p. 22 Funen
- p. 25 East Jutland
- p. 28 North Jutland
- p. 31 South Jutland
- p. 34 Good to Know
- p. 35 Travel Trade Tools
- p. 36 Travel Trade Contacts

© Daniel Rasmussen – Copenhagen Media Center

Denmark & Its Regions

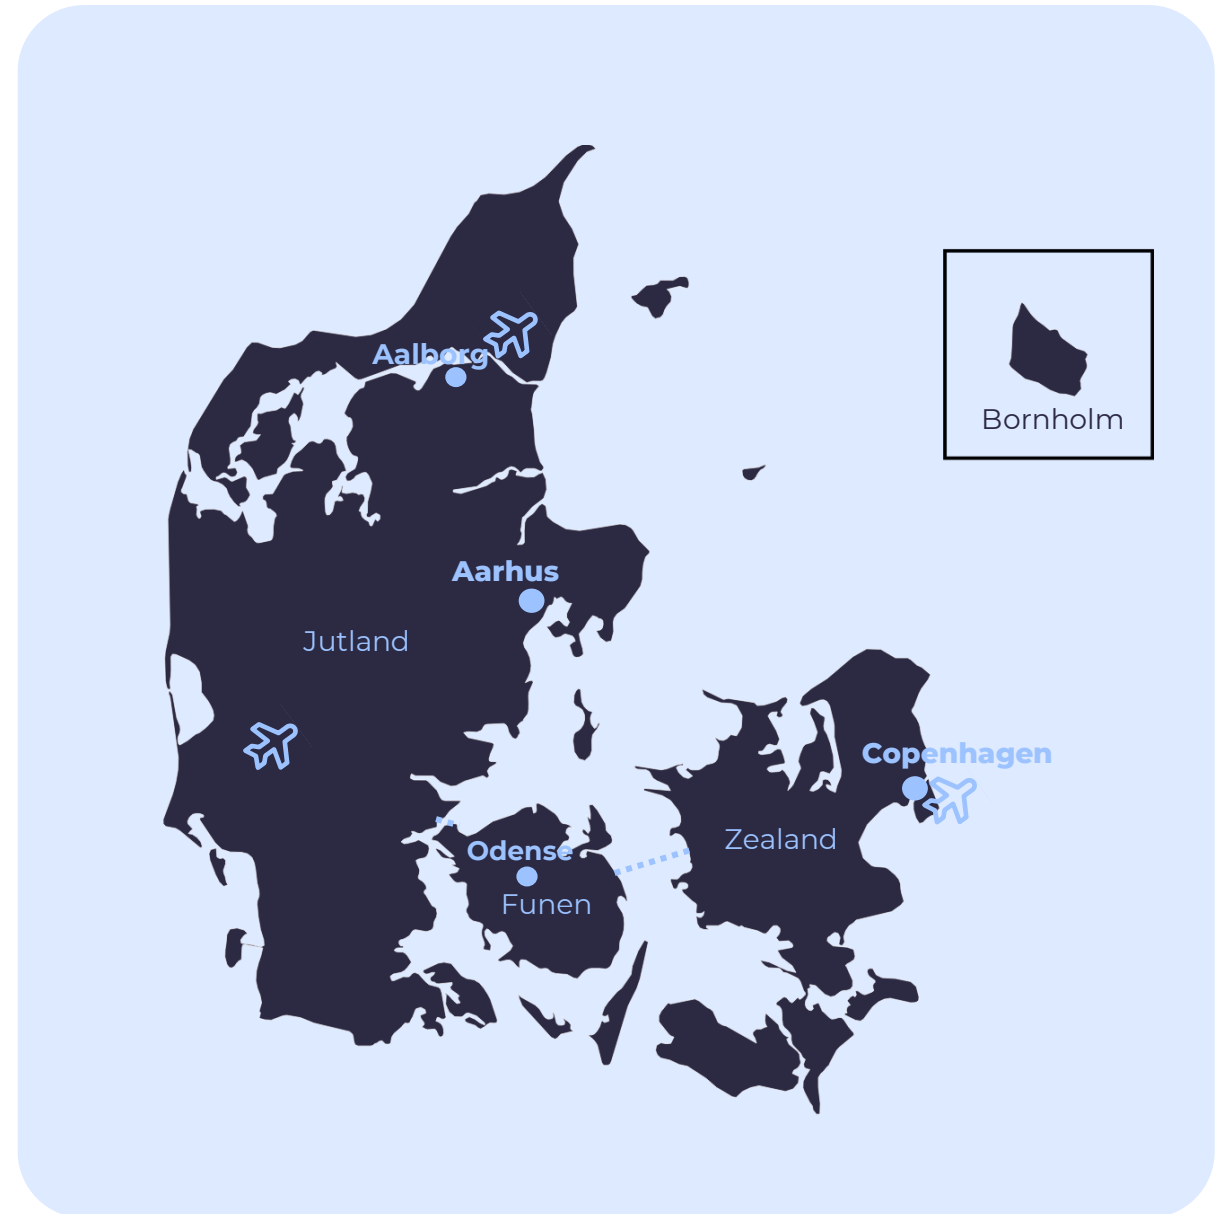

Geography

- The smallest and southernmost Scandinavian country.
- Has a physical border with Germany and is connected to Sweden by a bridge.
- The Danish regions: North, Mid, and South Jutland, Funen, South and North Zealand, and Copenhagen.
- Short travel distances: Copenhagen to Aalborg less than a 5-hour drive and a 35-minute flight.

Facts

- The population is 6 million people
- Home of: 'hygge', New Nordic Cuisine, Viking history, LEGO®
- The currency is Danish kroner (DKK).
- Most people speak fluent English.
- One of the happiest countries in the world with one of the world's most livable capital city.
- Easily combined with other Nordic countries.
- Perfect for all types of travelers: families, romantic, adventure, luxury, business, foodies, backpackers and more.

Watch our Video Introduction to Denmark

Danish Luxury

- Luxury travel in Denmark is not grand rooms, glitter, and glamour. It is minimalistic, coziness, high quality, and authenticity and local experiences.
- Accommodation standards are high with great restaurants and bars decorated in Danish design.
- Please note rooms are smaller than in the US and a concierge is not given unless you stay at 5-star hotels.
- Seaside hotels along the many miles of coastline are a highly recommended, as they embody the Danish understanding of luxury, focusing on coziness, calmness, wellness, and high-quality restaurants.
- Beyond the cities, Denmark offers effortless access to intimate, locally rooted experiences - from boutique stays to visits at small-scale wineries and countryside estates, where craftsmanship and personal hospitality take center stage.
- Denmark is internationally recognized for its high level of gastronomy, shaped by the The Nordic Kitchen Manifesto. These principles has guided the evolution of Danish culinary culture, offering luxury travelers countless memorable dining experiences.

Copenhagen

Denmark's capital, Copenhagen, is the ideal destination for travelers seeking a high-end experience. Known for its high-quality, the city seamlessly combines historical elegance with contemporary luxury. Whether your clients stay in a 5-star luxury hotel, dine at Michelin-starred restaurants, enjoy exclusive activities, or if they simply wish to explore the city's castles and royal history, Copenhagen has an abundance of experiences to indulge in luxury.

Dream Stays

Copenhagen

Nimb Hotel

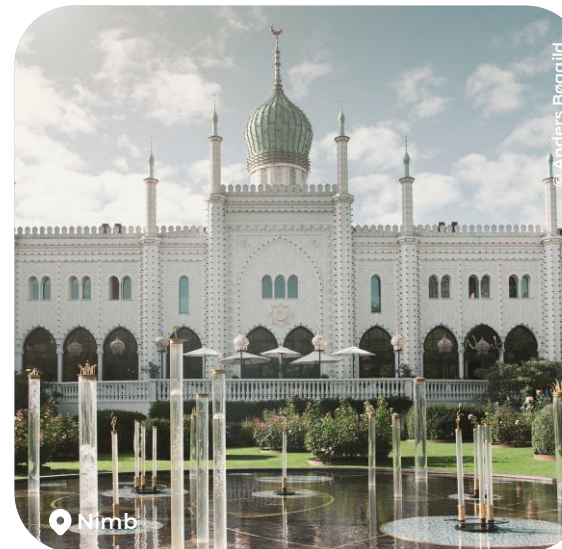

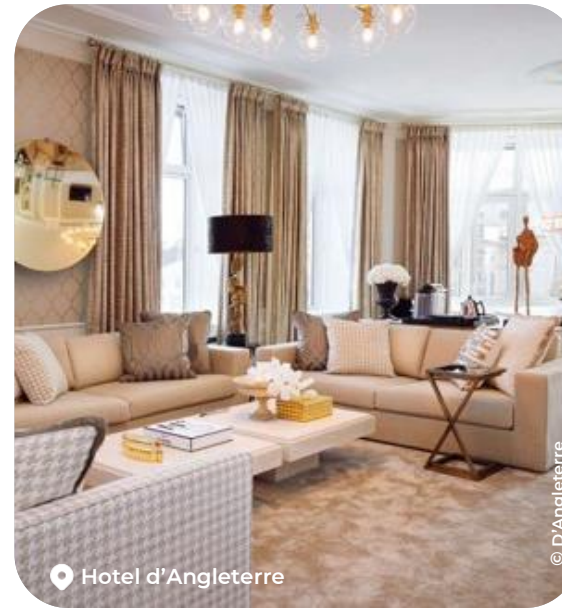

In Copenhagen's core lies the unforgettable Nimb, boasting mesmerizing vistas of the enchanting Tivoli Gardens amusement park. Nimb a five-star boutique hotel, featuring a luxurious wellness sanctuary and a rooftop terrace complete with a pool.

Hotel d'Angleterre

Established in 1755, Hotel d'Angleterre is a 5-star landmark in Copenhagen, blending Victorian architecture with Nordic design. It offers a Michelin-starred restaurant, champagne bar, spa, and boutique. Situated in the heart of Copenhagen, the hotel has a rich history dating back over 265 years, rooted in a love story between its founders.

Hotel Sanders

Nestled in Copenhagen's historic heart near the picturesque Nyhavn, Hotel Sanders enjoys proximity to iconic landmarks like Amalienborg Palace and the Royal Theatre. Surrounding cobblestone lanes boast top-tier dining, art galleries, and shopping. With 54 uniquely luxurious rooms some featuring private lounges and fireplaces.

Stay in Luxury Copenhagen

Villa Copenhagen

Villa Copenhagen is a 5-star dynamic social hub where the past meets the present in an inspiring atmosphere. Originally the Danish Post and Telegraph office and today a unique hotel, which aims to lead the way in environmental responsibility.

Manon Les Suites

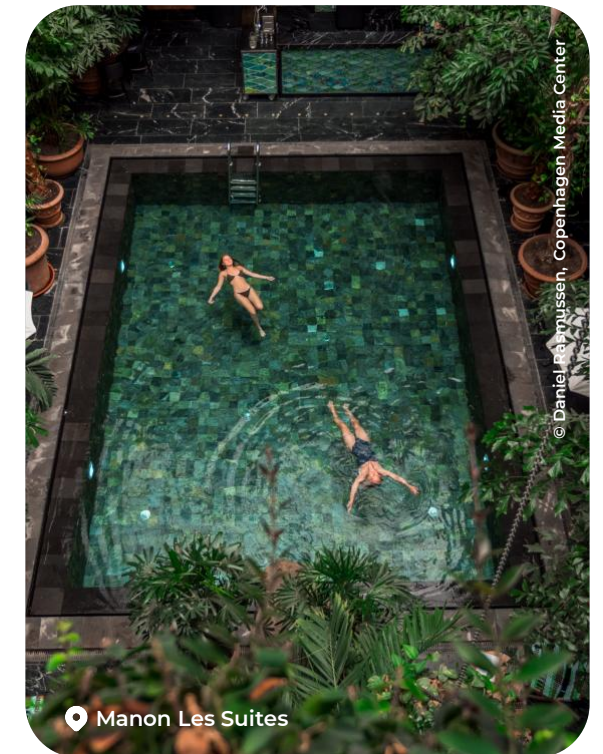

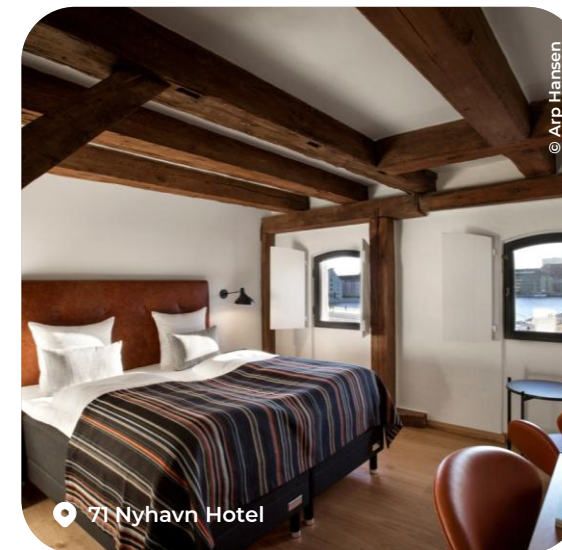

Experience a slice of Bali at the 5-starred hotel, Manon Les Suites's, iconic jungle pool. This luxurious hotel is centrally located making it the perfect base for exploring Copenhagen's landmarks and hidden gems.

Nobis

This centrally located 5-star hotel Nobis is found in a historic 1903 building that once was the Royal Danish Academy of Music. The interior, designed with Swedish architect Gert Wingårdh, combines elegance and timelessness with superb comfort and first-class service, all in line with contemporary trends.

71 Nyhavn Hotel

Within two well-preserved warehouses along the iconic Nyhavn sunny side lies 71 Nyhavn Hotel, exuding understated elegance and unique experiences.

Stay In Luxury

Copenhagen

Hotel Hans

Located in the lively Vesterbro district, Hotel Hans combines bold design with a welcoming and polished feel. Surrounded by some of Copenhagen's best dining and cultural spots, it offers an inspiring base for experiencing the city.

Petra & Traditions

In the heart of the city, Petra & Traditions hotel blends Scandinavian design with a warm and inviting atmosphere. Thoughtfully designed interiors and a calm ambiance create a refined base, ideal for both relaxing and exploring Copenhagen.

Ottilia

Set in Copenhagen's vibrant Carlsberg City District, Hotel Ottilia is housed in a former brewery building where historic character meets modern design. With its distinctive architecture, curated interiors, and rooftop views, it offers a stylish and memorable stay.

1 Hotel Copenhagen

A design-led urban retreat where nature and modern luxury come together. 1 Hotel Copenhagen is in the historic Latin Quarter, and blends natural materials, soft textures, and greenery to create a calm atmosphere. The experience is relaxed and refined, offering a modern and conscious take on luxury hospitality.

Culinary Treats

Copenhagen

50 Courses For A Real Foodie

Alchemist's holistic dining experience blends gastronomy with theater, art, science, technology, and design. It is a full sensory experience that goes beyond food. Remember to arrive hungry because you'll be served 50 courses.

Fine Dining in a Soccer Stadium

Geranium was named The World's Best Restaurant in 2022. The restaurant is a meat-free haven, featuring locally sourced seafood and vegetables from organic farms in Denmark and Scandinavia. Oh, and they are located at the top of the national soccer stadium in Copenhagen offering amazing city views.

A Legacy of Gastronomy Since 1976

Kong Hans Kælder is dedicated to preserving the past while maintaining its authentic charm, blending heritage and innovation for a delightful atmosphere. Since 1976, it has been a Danish icon, earning Denmark's first Michelin star in 1983. Nearly 50 years later, it remains a must-visit, with only four head chefs shaping its remarkable legacy.

Unique Bars

Copenhagen

Refined Fireside Elegance

Nimb Bar, located in Nimb Hotel, has no windows and a big beautiful fireplace as the centerpiece. This bar offers excellent cocktails in peaceful surroundings.

Elevated Creative Playground

Balderdash, overseen by renowned bartender Geoffrey Canilao, offers a diverse experience in a historic 1732 building. Rejecting categorization, guests define their visit amidst a cocktail center, beer selection, spirits lab, pop-up restaurants, and a gallery.

Timeless Cocktail Elegance

Ruby, located in a historic 1740 townhouse with a rich history, including housing the Danish Spirit Producers founded in 1882. Opening on June 21, 2007, Ruby now serves top-notch cocktails in an area once known for dive bars.

Stylish Scandi Vibes

Duck & Cover is a must-visit on any Copenhagen bar tour, with its Scandi-chic interior setting the standard for bars worldwide. The atmosphere feels like a cool house party, ideal for a nightcap in the trendy Vesterbro neighborhood.

Artful Crafted Cocktails

Bird is a small neighborhood bar built on a love for good sound, great drinks, and thoughtful craftsmanship. Its cocktail program draws on classic traditions, reworked with modern flavors that are clean, bold, and playful. Menus change regularly, keeping the focus on balance, clarity, and a spirit-led style.

Tasting the City

Copenhagen

Cooking the Danish Classics

Learn how to make all the Danish classics like Danish pastries or Smørrebrød. What better souvenir to bring home than being able to relive your trip through the food you learn to make at CPH Cooking Classes.

Try Local Liquor

Step into Copenhagen Distillery, where tradition and innovation converge with each sip. They offer both gin and whisky tastings as well as you can make your clients can make their very own gin.

Locally Crafted Beer

Nørrebro Bryghus is a local brewery offering great beer tasting experiences. As a cornerstone of Denmark's beer culture, their beer-centric cuisine revitalized Danish gastronomy, making them a top contender for Scandinavia's best beer restaurant.

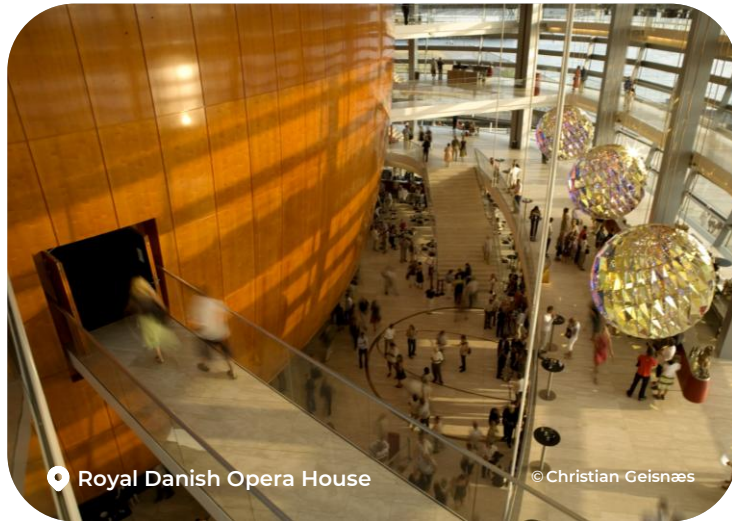

The View From the Top

See Denmark from a different perspective with a private helicopter tour. Fly over Copenhagen's landmarks, picturesque countryside, and coastal areas for breathtaking views.

Wellness & Culture

Copenhagen

Ballet & Opera at The Royal Danish Theater

Experience world-class performances at the Royal Danish Opera House in Copenhagen. From opera and ballet to concerts and theater productions, it's a cultural gem that is definitely worth a visit.

Danish Design & Architecture Tours

Discover the best of Danish design with a private tour showcasing iconic furniture, architecture, and interior design at Danish Architecture Center \(DAC\) or Danish Design Museum. Travelers can visit design studios, museums, and boutiques in Copenhagen and beyond, and learn about Denmark's influential design heritage.

Wellness & Beer in the New City District

In the vibrant Home of Carlsberg, the historic Carlsberg factory has been transformed into Copenhagen's premier relaxation oasis. This iconic 1881 building has been meticulously restored, blending its original features with the enchanting AIRE atmosphere. Your clients can also go on a guided tour of the historic brewery while they are visiting.

Active Experiences

Copenhagen

Gastronomy Tour

For any foodie traveler a tour exploring the city's food history and its current culinary scene is a must. Foods of Copenhagen have walking and biking tours and the Bicycle Chef will take you on foodie bike tours where he cooks meals on his bike along the way.

Private Luxury Boat Charter & Tours

Board a private yacht and go on a luxurious maritime adventure. Relax on deck, enjoy gourmet meals prepared by a private chef, and explore secluded coves and islands along the way.

Cozy & Social Canal Tour

Hey Captain offer a social boat tour with a local guide to explore the city's beauty from the waterside.

Be Your Own Captain

If your clients want to steer their own ship, they can rent a GoBoat and embark on a leisurely adventure. They can pack a picnic and add a little 'hygge' to this memorable experience.

Private Tours & Chauffeur Service

With CPH Concierges, guests can explore Copenhagen through personalized tours highlighting both culture and local life. Makhens complements the experience with high-end chauffeur service in modern luxury vehicles. Combined, they create an easy and elevated way to experience the city.

Active Experiences

Copenhagen

Private Guided Walking Tours

Walk the city with a local guide showcasing all the Danish Wonders. Try a private guided tour with Jewish Copenhagen and learn about the importance Jews had on building Copenhagen or book with Danish Architecture Center \(DAC\) to hear about Copenhagen's architectural wonders.

Cycling Tour

Explore Copenhagen like a local with a guided cycling tour. Pedal through the city's charming streets, vibrant neighborhoods, and iconic landmarks while learning about its rich history and culture.

A Green Escape

A great city escape is a trip to Dyrehaven, a UNESCO World Heritage Park that is also home to the world's oldest amusement park. Enjoy horse-drawn carriage rides, picnics in the forest, and encounters with herds of majestic deer.

Magical Night at Tivoli Gardens

Enjoy a magical evening at Tivoli Gardens, the second oldest amusement park in the world. Admire the enchanting gardens, ride the vintage roller coasters, and savor gourmet cuisine at its upscale restaurants.

Art & History

North Zealand

Something Is Rotten in the State of Denmark...

Explore the beautiful Kronborg Castle \(UNESCO\) in the picturesque fishing village of Elsinore just a short car or train ride from Copenhagen. The castle is known as the home of Shakespeare's Hamlet, and here your client's can enjoy both guided tours, concerts, and theatrical performances.

Discover Denmark's Maritime History

Maritime life has also been central to Danish culture and with a visit to the architectural gem, the M/S Maritime Museum, in Elsinore, travelers can experience an engaging and interactive exploration of the nation's maritime heritage.

Castle & Museum Visit

Visit one of Denmark's most magnificent Renaissance castles, Frederiksborg Castle in Hillerød, which is also home to the Museum of National History. Explore the castle inside and out and be sure to visit the museum's restaurant, Rabarbergaarden.

World-Class Art by the Sea

A haven for art enthusiasts, the Louisiana Museum of Modern Art in Humlebæk, is home to one of Scandinavia's largest collections of contemporary art and offer stunning views with its seaside location.

Zealand

Sjælland "Shell-an"

Forget New Zealand. The old Zealand is where it's at!

Copenhagen is located on Zealand, an island scattered with historical and natural wonders. Travelers can explore grandiose castles, enjoy wellness at seaside hotels, discover world-class art, and even visit a restaurant where the world's best chef anno 2023 is head chef. What's even better - everything on Zealand is within a 1.45h drive from Copenhagen.

📍 Kongsmark Beach

© Christoffer Anias Sandager

Food & wellness

North Zealand

Kurhotel Skodsborg & Wellness

Kurhotel Skodsborg, 30 minutes from the capital, is a perfect place to recharge in luxury with a range of spa treatments.

Søllerød Kro

Søllerød Kro's Michelin-star restaurant is led by the World's Best Chef, Brian Mark, who won Bocuse d'Or in 2023.

Kokkedal wellness

Kokkedal Castle wellness unites vitality and well-being in a unique, exclusive, and relaxing ambiance surrounded by captivating and tranquil natural beauty.

Helenekilde

Helenekilde Badehotel, nestled along the coastline and offer a timeless elegance and culinary excellence.

CORI

CORI is a boutique hotel located directly on the beach. It combines history, design, and modern comfort and offers a calm experience, designed for rest and a sense of everyday luxury.

Rox Resort

Rox Resort is a design-led seaside hotel only 30 minutes South of Copenhagen. The hotel combines coastal views, modern comfort, and a vibrant lifestyle and offers high-end rooms, curated dining experiences, and a rooftop pool club, creating a complete and contemporary destination.

Gourmet & Vinyards

West Zealand

Dragsholm Slot & Dragsholm Castle Gourmet

Dragsholm Slot, a luxury castle hotel with a rich 800-year history and located in the picturesque surroundings of UNESCO-certified Geopark Odsherred. Recognized in esteemed guides like Michelin Nordic and Relais & Châteaux, this castle is celebrated as one of the world's premier destinations, providing immersive experiences that fuse history, nature, gastronomy, and hospitality, all this just an hour from Copenhagen.

Vineyard Visit

While Denmark may not immediately evoke thoughts of wine, the landscape is rapidly changing. Recognized as a commercial winegrowing area by the EU in 2000, Denmark's winemaking industry has flourished since, boasting numerous wineries and vineyards. Visit Ørby Vineyard (Located in Northern Zealand), Barfod Wine, or Dyrehøj Vineyard in West Zealand.

Dragsholm Castle

© Kim Wyon

Stub Winery

© Camilla Hylleberg Photography

Lønnebjerg Vineyard

© Kim Wyon

Unexpected Wonders

South Zealand

Accommodation in South Zealand

Hotel Frederiksminde in Præstø has a Michelin-starred restaurant and a rich history originating as a monastery in 1470. For the more adventurous luxury travelers, there is also Häckeberga Castle a boutique hotel and the nature hotel, Villa Huno.

A Unexpected Wine Tasting Experience

For the experimental wine enthusiast, Frederiksdal Estate is a memorable gem that is sure to impress your clients! Frederiksdal are pioneers as the first in the world selling this exclusive type of cherry wine globally. They offer both wine tasting and tours of their cherry orchard and winery.

Dine in History & 'Hygge'

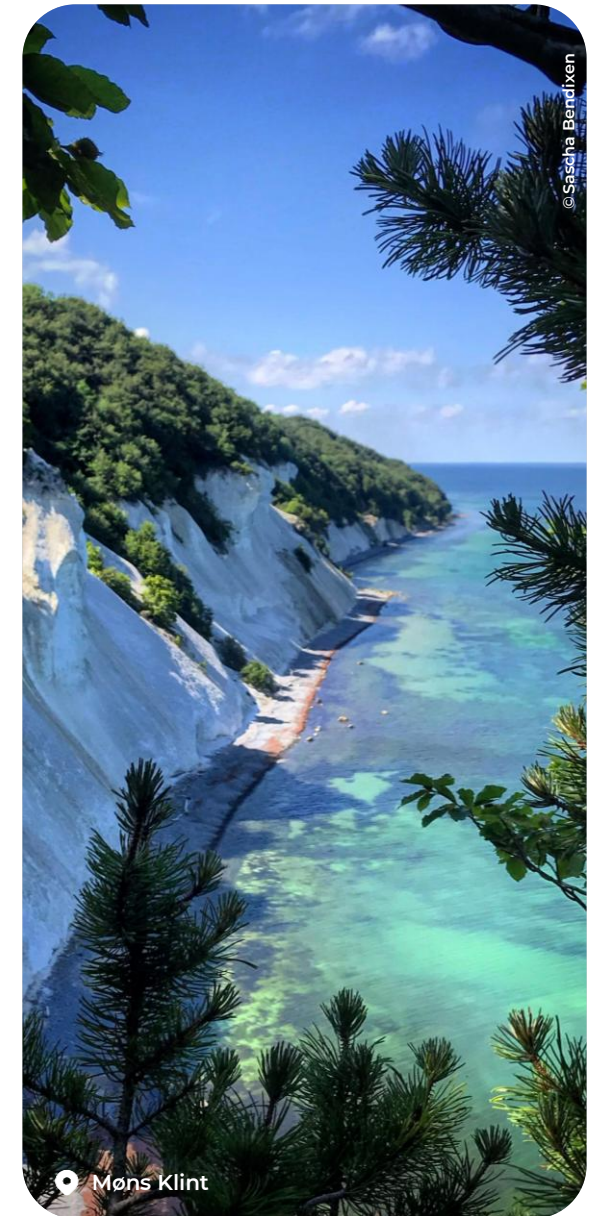

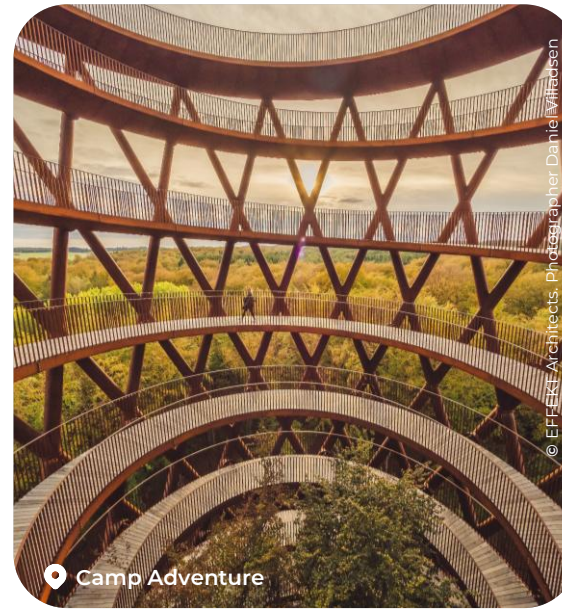

With a 100 year history and having had visits from Walt Disney and H.C. Andersen, Rønnede Kro is a unique dining experience.

Explore The Adventurous Island of Møn

If your clients are traveling to South Zealand, be sure they visit the island of Møn with its stunning chalk cliffs, picture-sque villages, and Scandinavia's first "Dark Sky" park.

Private Island Stay

A sustainable haven of luxury, exclusivity, and privacy, Vejrø is the perfect escape of culinary delights at on this private island.

Bornholm

Bornholm ("BORN-holm")

Bornholm offers a blend of experiences! The island has transformed into a diverse gastronomic hotspot because of the many locals who have returned to their roots. The island's is also known for its unique and beautiful rocky natural wonders that you can't find anywhere else in Denmark. Stay at one of the island's stunning seaside hotels and discover the welcoming locals happy to share their artistry and local food production.

Island Explorations

Bornholm

Beachside Eatery with a Michelin star

Kadeau a Michelin-starred and Green-star restaurant, has kick-started Bornholm's food revolution, with its menu of locally sourced seasonal produce showcasing the very best ingredients from the island. Guest will not only get to savor local food and drink but also eat from locally produced tableware while surrounded by local design furniture.

The Perfect Base for Island Exploration

Hotel Nordlandet, perched on a rocky outcrop at Bornholm's northernmost tip, offers stunning ocean views from nearly every room. The rooms are simple but cozy, featuring Nordic design and Scandi elements. Owned by the Kadeau family, Nordlandet excels in dining and the breakfast here is no exception. For a unique experience, check out their "pool" by the ocean.

Meet the Locals

Visit one of the islands' local ceramics, glass blowers, or jewelers and bring home a unique piece of Denmark. Read more here.

H.C. Andersen's House

© Kim Wyon

Funen

Fyn ("Foon")

Denmark's second largest island, Funen, is also known as the Garden Island because of the many great estate and the beautiful gardens that find on this idyllic island of rolling green hills. The main city on Funen is Odense, the city famously known as the birthplace of fairytale writer Hans Christian Andersen. Odense is a small big city that has received international recognition from both Vogue and The New York Times.

Odense & The Islands

Funen

Culinary Experience in Odense

Nestled in a modest industrial building on Odense's outskirts, Restaurant ARO serve a concise menu celebrating fresh, seasonal ingredients. They earned Odense's first Michelin star, marking a culinary milestone for the city.

Explore the Fairytale City

Renowned worldwide, Denmark's most celebrated author, Hans Christian Andersen, penned timeless classics like The Little Mermaid, The Ugly Duckling, and The Emperor's New Clothes. A must-visit is the new museum H.C. Andersen House, where travelers can explore his birth home and trace his steps through the city.

Explore the Islands Many Vineyards

Funen is home to many of Denmark's vineyards. They invite visitors to tour the vineyards and of course taste the great wine.

Private Island Hopping in the South Funen Archipelago

The South Funen Archipelago consists of several islands. One of them, Ærø is often called the island of romance. Prepare to fall in love with the cobblestoned streets and colorful houses – and the fact that they have their own whiskey breweries and smokehouses doesn't hurt!

The Garden Island

Funen

A Getaway to Remember

Indulge in a culinary journey at Falsled Kro which is part of Relais & Châteaux. The old, beautiful village inn offers exquisite gourmet cuisine prepared with the finest local ingredients at its renowned Michelin-starred restaurant.

Gourmet Stay With a View

Since 1904, Stella Maris has been a global host, earning the nickname "The Star of the Sea." Located right by the water the hotel and its amazing restaurant offer stunning views and guest can even combine their visit with a boat trip at Svendborg Sound.

Fairytalelike Castle Visit

Visit Egeskov Castle one of Europe's finest Renaissance buildings and the best-preserved moat castles. Visitors can walk through the gardens, get lost in the maze, explore the beautiful chambers inside the castle or experience one of their many exhibitions.

Explore the Island's Many Vineyards

Funen is home to many of Denmark's vineyards. They invite visitors to tour the vineyards and of course taste the high-quality wine.

East Jutland

Midtjylland ("Mid-yoo-land")

City life with a bunch of nature thrown in too? With Aarhus as a starting point, travelers can explore national parks, pristine beaches, and major attractions, all in the backyard of a so-hot-right-now European city destination. Only 3 hours from Copenhagen by car, this area offers the luxury traveler many Danish wonders, such as several Michelin restaurants, amazing museums, hidden bars, architectural gems, and a unique wine experience.

The Small Big City

East Jutland

Extraordinary Stay in Aarhus

Villa Provence is a charming French boutique hotel uniquely decorated and a favorite for those seeking an extraordinary stay.

Gastronomic Highlights

The gastronomy scene in Aarhus is boasting with great dining opportunities such as Frederikshøj, Ti Trin Ned, or Domestic. Or visit the newest area of Aarhus and dine with a view from 44th floor at Bavn \(Link in Danish\) with a sea, forest and city view of Aarhus.

Hidden After Dinner Drink

After dinner, travelers will be amazed with a visit to Gedulgt, a hidden bar serving innovative and picture-worthy cocktails. Just remember, it's not easy to find!

Elevated Dining in a Historic Setting

St. Pauls Apothek is a refined restaurant and cocktail bar set in a former pharmacy dating back to 1899. Original details are paired with modern design, creating a space that feels both elegant and full of character. The menu offers carefully crafted dishes alongside cocktails designed to complement each course.

World-Class Art in Aarhus

ARoS Museum of Modern Art is a must-visit for anyone going to Aarhus. The beautiful museum is among Northern Europe's largest art museums and features art by world-renowned artists.

Exploring Jutland

East Jutland

A Winery Beyond the Ordinary

North of Aarhus is Cold Hand Winery that makes some of Denmark's most popular fruit wine. They have wine tastings, and amazing restaurant, and even a glamping experience.

A Boutique Stay Surrounded by Nature

Ny Hattenæs is a restored lakeside hotel where heritage, design, and nature meet in a calm setting. With a limited number of rooms, each space feels personal and connected to its surroundings. The hotel combines classic details with modern comfort and a carefully curated atmosphere.

Refined Nordic Dining Under the Dome

Restaurant Domæne is an intimate fine dining restaurant set in a striking dome just outside Herning – an hour drive from Aarhus. The cuisine blends Nordic ingredients with classic French techniques, focusing on purity, balance, and precision. The experience is immersive and refined, offering a calm, high-end setting where every detail is thoughtfully considered.

📍 Løkken Beach

© Simone Bramante - @brahmino.com

North Jutland

Nordjylland “Nor-yuh-land”

North Jutland boasts a wealth of seaside hotels nestled in natural beauty along its coast, adorned with white sandy beaches. These hotels provide luxurious wellness and world-class gastronomy. The region's natural surroundings, cozy accommodations, and the use of fresh, locally sourced ingredients in their restaurants are hallmarks of North Jutland.

Seaside Hotels

North Jutland

The Famous One

Right by the water, on the edge of the sand dune is Svinkløv Seaside Hotel. Wake up to a view of the dunes, the forest, the beach, and the North Sea. As if this wasn't idyllic enough, the hotel restaurant is sure treat for the tastebuds.

Stay at Ruth's Hotel in Old Skagen

Over a century ago, Ruths Hotel first opened its doors, providing an ideal escape in serene surroundings. Guests can indulge in relaxation at the wellness area or unwind in the cozy fireplace lounge, creating an atmosphere of tranquility and 'hygge'.

The Historic Brøndums Hotel

Brøndums Hotel, steeped in Danish cultural history, exudes a unique atmosphere from its red brick facade. Originally a trading post, it evolved into one of Denmark's largest hotels. The hotel became a hub for the Skagen artist colony, fostering a close relationship between artists and the town.

Michelin Dining & a Seaside Retreat

Villa Vest in the charming village of Lønstrup offer a serene retreat at a seaside hotel. Their Michelin-starred restaurant, Restaurant Villa Vest, serve imaginatively prepared food from the very best local producers.

Explorations

North Jutland

The Capital of North Jutland

Aalborg is a vibrant cultural hotspot with a spectacular waterfront of iconic architectural buildings. Top attractions include Kunsten Museum of Modern Art and the Utzon Center exhibiting the works of Jørn Utzon, the Danish architect behind the Sydney Opera House. Stay at Pier 5 Hotel where clients will find the perfect balance of city buzz and harbor tranquility.

A Unique Michelin Restaurant

The Michelin-starred Restaurant Tri in the quint coastal town of Agger is a unique experience of Danish luxury giving a true Nordic dining experience to its visitors!

Horseback Riding on the Beach

Enjoy a luxury horseback riding excursion through the picturesque landscapes of North Jutland. Gallop along sandy beaches, trot through tranquil forests, and explore charming coastal villages on horseback.

Meet the Locals

Clients who aren't afraid of getting their hands dirty should not miss out on a unique pottery class with Keramoda Keramik. They deliver a wonderful experience of art and culture in the city of Lønstrup.

South Jutland

Sønderjylland ("Surn-yer-lan")

Experience luxury travel in South Jutland. The West Coast have enormous beaches which are some of the widest in Europe! The historical south of Jutland is also home to three UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Stay the night at an inn and indulge in their Michelin-starred restaurant, sip on world-famous Danish whiskey, and enjoy an oyster safari by the coast. Relax in seaside hotels that blend coastal charm with refined comfort for a memorable getaway.

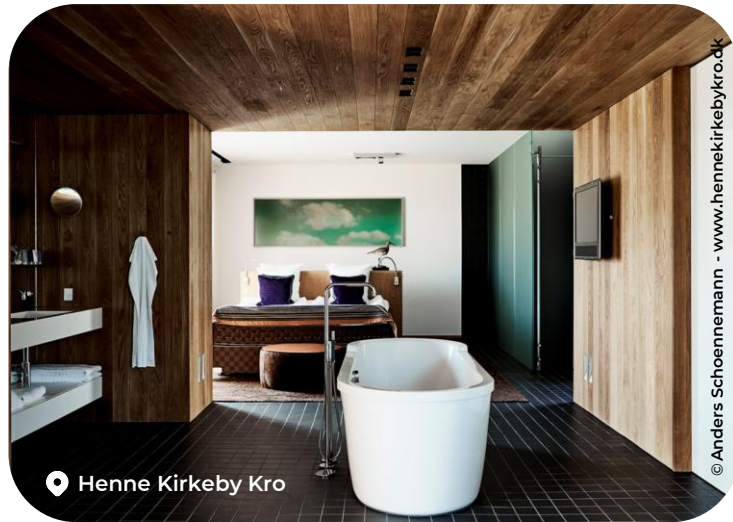

Wadden Sea

© Mads Tolstrup

Coastal Experiences

South Jutland

A Special Kind of Inn

One hour outside of the charming town of Ribe, there is a very special inn Henne Kirkeby Kro. It is small and cozy with only 12 rooms and is also home to one of the country's best Michelin-starred restaurants.

Oyster Safari with Champagne

A must-do for travelers who are food enthusiasts on the West Coast is an oyster safari. This unique experience involves walking along the coastline, handpicking fresh oysters directly from the water, and enjoying them on the spot. It's a delicious and even sustainable activity

Whiskey Tasting in Denmark

Employing a blend of traditional and contemporary methods, Stauning Whiskey is meticulously crafted from locally sourced grain, floor-malted in the distillery. Your clients can visit for a distillery and tasting tour.

Wellness & Treats

South Jutland

Seaside Retreat

Dyvig Badehotel is a beautiful boutique seaside hotel in a class of its own. Here luxury as is tranquility, discretion, and sublime service with an eye for detail.

Dining in Architectural Wonder

LYST, designed by Danish-Icelandic artist Olafur Eliasson and German architect Sebastian Behmann. It is praised it as one of Scandinavia's most ambitious restaurant projects.

Wellness in Southern Jutland

The beautiful Alsik Hotel, one of Denmark's largest and most captivating, is known for its tasteful Nordic design and use of natural materials. Part of renowned architect Frank Gehry's master plan for the Sønderborg waterfront, the hotel features ultra-modern rooms and suites with stunning views of Sønderborg and its lovely fjord landscapes. Guests can enjoy a luxurious, relaxed atmosphere with a range of experiences, including the expansive Alsik Nordic Spa, and exceptional dining at the rooftop restaurant Syttende.

Home Of Carlsberg

© Mette Johnsen

Good to Know

Main airports: Copenhagen, Billund, and Aalborg
Other airports: Aarhus, Odense, and Esbjerg.

Cash is rarely used. Card is accepted most places. Tipping is not required.

Public transport in Denmark is easy, fast and convenient.

Danish hotel rooms tend to be smaller, minimalistic and cozy. If your clients prefer bigger rooms, we recommend going up a suite level.

Denmark is a quite accessible country to get around.

Find information about cruise here.

Your travel questions answered with our Denmark A-Z.

Our Travel Trade Tools

VisitDenmark
Travel Trade

Webinars

News From
Denmark

Image Bank

Incoming
Agencies

Online Advisor
Training

Itineraries

Events In Denmark

Travel Trade Contacts

Mette Ejlskov
Hansen

Marketing Manager, U.S.

methan@visitdenmark.com

Ninna Seerup

Head of Travel Trade

ns@visitdenmark.com

Thank you,
Hej Hej!

