Zealand Sjælland

Denmark's largest island is Zealand, located just across from Sweden. This vibrant region is home to the nation's capital, Copenhagen, as well as charming towns, scenic coastlines, and cultural landmarks. The waters south of Zealand are sprinkled with popular Danish vacation islands, offering a mix of sandy beaches, quaint villages, and outdoor activities for visitors of all ages.

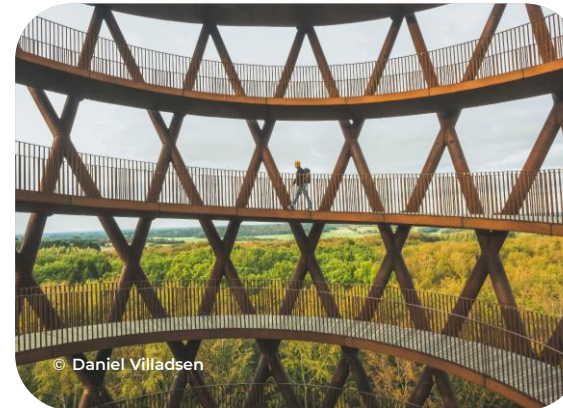

Experiences Sjælland

- Known as the castle of Shakespeare's Hamlet, Kronborg Castle is a Danish favorite. The castle is in the city of Elsinore, right next to M/S Maritime Museum.
- Get inspired at the Louisiana Museum of Modern Art.
- Frederiksberg Castle and its baroque garden is perhaps the most beautiful castle in Denmark. Fredensborg Palace is Denmark's Versailles and is often the setting for official state visits and family events in the royal family.
- The city of Roskilde is home to the Viking Ship Museum and the beautiful Roskilde Cathedral (UNESCO).
- Take in the striking landscape views at Camp Adventure.
- Møns Klint is a great place for anyone who loves nature. With its unique sky and low light pollution, Møn was named the first Nordic Dark Sky Park and Community.

Møns Klint

The 70 million-year-old towering white chalk cliffs are gentling crumbling into the Baltic Sea on the island of Møn.

Campadventure

Spend the day at Camp Adventure, where beautiful nature sets the scene for climbing, zip lines, and outdoor fun for all ages – from toddlers to thrill-seekers.

The Viking Ship Museum

Roskilde is the only place where you can board real Viking ships and sail the fjord in traditional Nordic ships.

Funen & Islands

Fyn & øerne

Funen is fine – as the Danes say. This bike-friendly island is known for its gently rolling hills, fertile countryside dotted with fruit orchards, and charming towns. Its surrounding archipelago of 93 islands offers hidden coves, scenic harbors, and plenty of spots to enjoy the nature. And, of course, it's the birthplace of the world-famous fairy-tale writer H.C. Andersen, so a little magic is never far away.

Experiences

Fyn & øerne

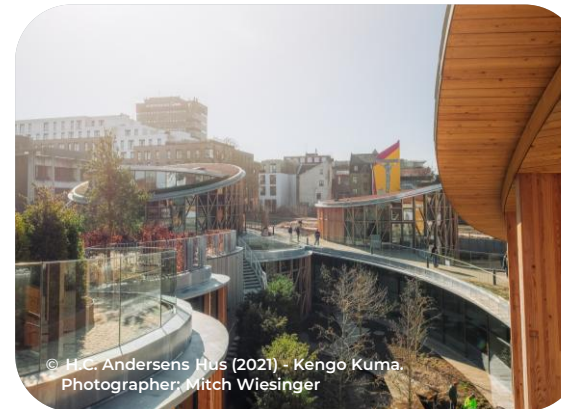

- Odense is Funen's largest city and the birthplace of the fairy tale writer, H. C. Andersen. Exploring the cobbled streets of his childhood and the museum, H.C. Andersen's House, is like taking a step back in time. Learn about Odense's gastronomy scene here.
- Visit the old market town of Faaborg.
- Walk through the gardens, get lost in the maze, and explore the beautiful chambers at Egeskov Castle.
- Across the bridge from Svendborg you can explore Valdemar Castle.
- Island hopping in the Archipelago and visit Ærø is one of the most beloved Danish islands, and it is the perfect place to wound down and meet the locals.

Where to stay

- Hotels in Odense and accommodations on Funen
- Enjoy a delicious meal while staying at Falsled Kro.

UNESCO Sites

Sønderjylland

- With its straight rectangular streets and the large church in the center of the city, Christiansfeld was and is still unique, and it is the best-preserved city of its kind in the world.
- The Wadden Sea is one of the world's top ten tidal flats and in low tide, it is a great place to go on Oyster Safari and experience black sun.
- The Jelling Monuments, close to Vejle, have enjoyed UNESCO World Heritage patronage since 1994. In the visitor and experience center, Kongernes Jelling, you can discover the exciting world of the Vikings and their monuments.

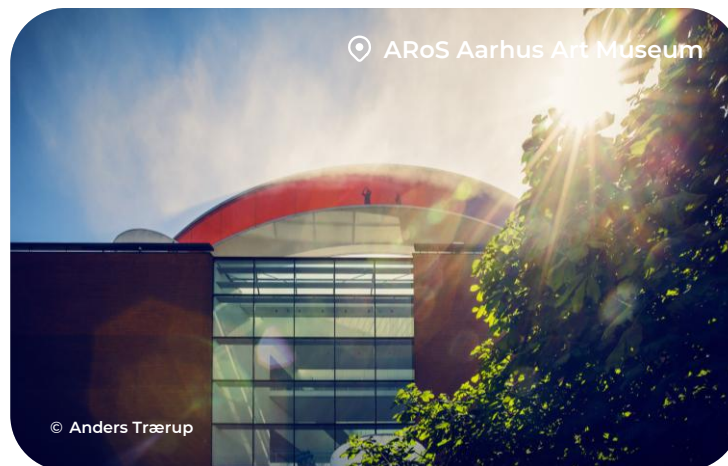

East Jutland

Midtjylland

The Mid Jutland region offers both the beautiful lake district around Silkeborg, often called Denmark's outdoor capital, and the dramatic coastline of Djursland. Scattered across the region are also historic market towns showcasing local culture and traditions. At its center lies Denmark's second largest city, Aarhus, with a vibrant gastro scene, bold architecture, and a cozy Latin Quarter.

Aarhus

MIDTJYLLAND

Denmark's second largest city, Aarhus, offers a mix of youthful energy, rich history, and top-class museums
